Sir,

Sub: Change of name- permission under sec.11(4) - application.

Our Company was registered under the Indian Companies Act 1913 , in the District of South Kanara on 14.11.49 and we possess the certificate of Incorporation . It was our intention to start a newspaper but, owing to the existence of several local papers, we abandoned the idea. We have now decided to start some general trading business and as the name does not suit the purpose, we have by a special resolution passed on 5.11.52 resolved unanimously to change our name to"INDO WESTERN TRADING CORPORATION LIMITED" . Our memorandum and association permits the doing of business of general merchants. We have also filed the copy of the special resolution with the Asst. Registrar of Joint Stock Cos. South Kanara, Mangalore.

We, therefore, request you to kindly sanction the change of name.

Yours faithfully,

H S Wodeyar

Managing Director.
